

BINOCAR

New Developments in the Detection and Treatment of Congenital Anomalies Scientific Conference

Friday September 26th 2008
Henry Wellcome Building, University of Leicester

Programme

9:15 Registration and Refreshments

9:50 Welcome & Introductions Professor Elizabeth Draper, Chair
BINOCAR

Morning session chaired by Elizabeth Draper:

Latest developments in the detection and treatment of cardiovascular anomalies

10:00 Fetal cardiac diagnosis and intervention:
the state of the art. Dr Helena Gardiner
Senior Lecturer in Perinatal Cardiology, Imperial College, London.

10:45 2 Free Papers

11:15 Refreshment Break

11:45 Current management options for Hypoplastic Left Heart Syndrome. Mr David Anderson, Consultant Cardiac
Surgeon, Guys Hospital, London

12:30 2 Free Papers

13:00 Lunch

Afternoon session chaired by Jennifer Kurinczuk:

New developments in antenatal screening, diagnosis and interventions

14:00 The future in diagnosis and treatment for congenital anomalies (Feto – maternal invasive interventions) Dr Steve Sturgiss, Consultant in Obstetrics & Fetal Medicine, Royal Victoria Infirmary,
Newcastle upon Tyne

14:30 In Utero MR for the detection and management of congenital brain anomalies Professor Paul Griffiths, Professor of Radiology, University of Sheffield

14:55 3D Ultrasound – Useful Clinical Tool or Just a Toy? Mr Ed Howarth, Consultant in Feto-Maternal Medicine, UHL

15:15 Refreshment Break

15:30 2 Free Papers

16:00 Close